

Design Philosophy

Simple changes can make a great impact. Recovering a chair, placing valances over windows, or changing the bedding can have an overwhelming effect. Furnishings by Lou Lou's Decor resemble owner Stacy Carlson's personal style. "I enjoy rooms that have a simple elegance to them; not overdone, not overpowering, just beautifully pulled together. A room should be designed so it can be used and enjoyed."

Lou Lou's Background

Founded in 1998 by husband and wife Stacy and Brett Carlson. Lou Lou's Decor has expanded from a small 900 square foot retail operation to now over 2,500 square feet of retail space, web site sales and a vast interior design business.

New Construction & Renovations

Comprehensive Interior Design Projects from conception to completion. If your plans include building a new home from the ground up or a major renovation Lou Lou's can provide assistance with all the steps along the way.
