Cookbook Fundraising Is Easy! Make Your Custom Cookbook In 5 Steps. Step 1 Get Started. Step 3 Proofread. Step 4 Design. Step 5 Submit. When I decided to create a family cookbook, I looked at every printing option I could find. I needed flexibility on the design and number of elements to include for an affordable price. The choice was clear to work with Cookbook Specialists. Their team was responsive to my questions and took the time to understand what I was trying to create. They helped me create a template that would allow me the desired flexibility to create the cookbook I wanted. Mitch Biersner Cookbook Specialists was able to take my vision of a family cookbook and turn it into a reality. I had a very lofty picture in my mind of what I wanted this cookbook to be and the most wonderful part is, not only did the finished product fulfill my dream, but is even better. In fact it turned out so good, it brought tears to my eyes when I saw the finished product, to have such a treasure that can now be shared not only with our family, but so many more. My Aunt Martha has worked so hard through the years to research the genealogy and now we are guaranteed that it will not be lost. Cookbook Specialists not only answered all of my questions, but also brought up others that I had not considered. They walked our family through the process with patience and encouragement. They have an amazing system and design team! We selected the basic design, which we thought would be wonderful, but then they went above and beyond and customized the design even more to our family. I cannot say enough good things about Cookbook Specialists. They turned the dream of The Geater Family Cookbook into a reality that we can now treasure forever. I would highly recommend their company and expertise to anyone. Kim Dripps It has been a dream for quite a long time to collect my Mom's recipes for my family. One of my sisters suggested adding other recipes as well and from there the dream grew. I decided to check out the company our church community had used for their last cookbook, and about 5 years after starting to record recipes, the dream begin to become reality. I contacted Cookbook Specialists and they were incredibly helpful and speedy! I never expected to have the cookbooks within a month after first sending off pictures and recipes. This was extra special since they arrived two days before Mom's 80th birthday! Thank you for making this dream come true, and thank you for your very prompt responses to questions and requests! Vicky Nisly I never thought I'd ever be publishing a cookbook, but it seemed like a fitting way for our school to celebrate our 75 year anniversary. I didn't want your run of the mill cookbook but something that captured our long history through the lens of food, conversations, stories, and photos all symbolizing the connection we have with our school and with each other. I am thankful my search landed me on Cookbook Specialists. Everyone I worked with was professional, knowledgeable, and most of all patient. They held my hand through the process, asking all the right questions along the way and providing the expertise I needed. Our cookbook turned out beautiful. It is a collection of more than recipes that embodies the book's tagline "Telling the story of our school one plate at a time. Jeremy Ours Hillcrest Academy '; document.
