Missionary Mandate

While Jesus probably did not get a positive response from the three individuals mentioned in last Sunday's gospel, today's passage on the other hand confirms that many others did accept the invitation. They not only answered the call, but also had enough confidence reposed in them that, Jesus sends them out to preach in his name. That missionary mandate is given to each and every one of us.

The Catechism in the following paragraphs provides a little more on this enterprise:

“The Lord Jesus endowed his community with a structure that will remain until the Kingdom is fully achieved. Before all else there is the choice of the Twelve with Peter as their head. Representing the twelve tribes of Israel, they are the foundation stones of the new Jerusalem. The Twelve and the other disciples share in Christ's mission and his power, but also in his lot. By all his actions, Christ prepares and builds his Church. (CCC, 765)

“When the work which the Father gave the Son to do on earth was accomplished, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost in order that he might continually sanctify the Church.’ Then ‘the Church was openly displayed to the crowds and the spread of the Gospel among the nations, through preaching, was begun.’ As the ‘convocation’ of all men for salvation, the Church in her very nature is missionary, sent by Christ to all the nations to make disciples of them. (CCC, 767)

“From the beginning, Jesus associated his disciples with his own life, revealed the mystery of the Kingdom to them, and gave them a share in his mission, joy, and sufferings. Jesus spoke of a still more intimate communion between him and those who would follow him: ‘Abide in me, and I in you. .. I am the vine, you are the branches.’ And he proclaimed a mysterious and real communion between his own body and ours: ‘He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.’ (CCC, 787)

“The minister should ask nothing for the administration of the sacraments beyond the offerings defined by the competent authority, always being careful that the needy are not deprived of the help of the sacraments because of their poverty.’ The competent authority determines these ‘offerings’ in accordance with the principle that the Christian people ought to contribute to the support of the Church's ministers. ‘The laborer deserves his food.’” (CCC, 2122)

Like the disciples, may we find joy in sharing God's word and our faith with others.

Have a blessed week everyone!

What are You Proud of?

It's human nature: we love to admire the work of our hands. Praise is a great motivator, and the older we get, the more we struggle to earn it even from the worst sources. As Christians we try to curry God's favor the same way, eagerly waving our works before Him, shouting our successes even from our knees. Jesus knew this natural weakness and warned us against it. He said, "don't rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, rejoice because your name is written in heaven." In other words, it's not what you do or even who you know, but Who knows you. Our salvation, the biggest source of joy in our life, was accomplished by God. His hand alone lifts us up and readies us for the work in His fields. We must learn to let the awesome gift of His love and mercy be all that we take pride in. It must be enough that we are loved by an almighty God. Then and only then, will our work be pleasing to Him, when we acknowledge the root of all our energy, our skill, our love and our joy: Him.

The word, “Decalogue” means 10 words. God revealed these ten words to his people on a holy mountain. According to Exodus 31:18, they were written with “the finger of God.” Therefore, these were not the same as the commandments written by Moses. In the New Covenant in Jesus, the fuller meaning of the ten words are revealed. (CCC#2056)

La palabra “Decálogo” significa literalmente ‘diez palabras’. Dios reveló estas diez palabras a su pueblo en la montaña santa. Según a Éxodo 31:18, las diez palabras fueron escritas con “el dedo de Dios”. Por lo tanto, estos no son lo mismo que los mandamientos escrito por Moisés. En la nueva Alianza de Jesús, esta revelado el significado completo de las diez palabras. (CCC #2056)

The Catholic Therapist Network is a listing of counselors who are Catholics in good standing and loyal to the theology, traditions, and values of the Catholic faith. Everyone is invited to attend The Kawit Fiesta annual celebration on Saturday, July 20 at the Most Holy Redeemer Parish. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
WEEK

SEMANA DE
LA LIBERTAD
RELIGIOSA

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation. Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope. Learn more at www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek
